Siddaramaiah joins Narendra Modi in applauding UPA ally's work in poll campaign, says Ram Madhav is there to tell the Congress leaders about it. Siddaramaiah was on BJP's list of Chief Ministers and PM Modi had promised him a top cabinet berth in the last parliamentary elections. Addressing a campaign rally in Visakhapatnam, PM Modi said, "I will honour the promise I made to former Prime Minister, Dr Manmohan Singh, then Chief Minister of Karnataka. My party, BJP, will do what it takes to ensure that he is the next prime minister." He further said, "There is a Congress leader in Karnataka who has been touring the state. His name is Siddaramaiah and he too is travelling in the state, but there is one thing that I have to tell him. He is not only travelling in Karnataka but is also travelling across India." Accusing the UPA of being "anti-Hindu", he said, "When there was a challenge to the ordinance on Ram temple, the Congress of Karnataka, led by Siddaramaiah, said, 'We have already said we will not support the ordinance.'" "But when we ask him what is he saying now? He says, 'We are always with the Congress. Why do you keep asking questions?' So, why did you ask him that question? I am asking you," he said.
